Our RCU staff are ready to serve you!

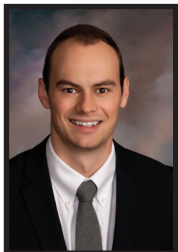

Each newsletter will feature a few of our staff, who would love to hear from you and help you reach your financial goals!

Kay Miller has been with Railway Credit Union for 9 years. Her vast knowledge for all things lending and compliance have led to her current role as Compliance & Business Services Officer. Throughout her career, Kay has earned designations of Credit Union Compliance Expert (CUCE) and Credit Union Business Lending Professional (CUBLP). Her duties include commercial lending responsibilities, compliance duties, as well as supervising all department loan processors. Kay is located in our Mandan branch and can be reached at 701-557-7157.

Stephanie Heim is one of our Member Success Managers. She spends her time at work building relationships with our current members through world class service, and also building relationships with our new members as she opens their accounts. Not only does she open new accounts and service existing accounts, she also serves as a mentor to our front line staff in sharing her extensive knowledge of member service. Stephanie is located in our Bismarck Branch and can be reached at 701-557-7142.

David Neff is located in our Bismarck Branch. He has worked for RCU for 2 years and is our Internal Auditor/Finance Specialist but has also become our Human Resources specialist! He is also our main ACH processor and handles BNSF payroll enrollments. While his duties keep him out of the general view of the membership, David has built relationships with our many BNSF employees and members who utilize our ACH and wire services. David can be reached at our Bismarck Branch at 701-354-7988.

Kevin Kleingartner has been with RCU for 37 years. Throughout his career, he has been with Railway Credit Union through two mergers and many changes. He currently holds the title of VP of Asset Protection. Kevin takes great care to get to know each and every member he interacts with. He has spent many hours providing service and building relationships with our members for all aspects of our lending and collection services. Kevin can be reached at our Bismarck Branch at 701-354-7998.
