

Jim Jensen

Jim Jensen has been a member of Railway Credit Union since 1988. Jim's professional career began in 1965 as a Maintenance of Way employee for the Northern Pacific Railroad. He retired from BNSF as a Signal Supervisor in December of 2001.

Jim is one of the pioneers who helped develop the Bismarck hockey program in 1970. He coached youth hockey programs for 12 years and is a member of the ND Hockey Hall of Fame. Jim served as President of the ND Amateur Hockey Association for 5 years and has been a volunteer for various civic and church projects.

Jim has been a dedicated director since 1993. He has served as past Vice Chairman of the board and currently serves on the credit union's compensation committee. Jim is always willing and able to volunteer for any duty needed at the RCU facility.

Jim and his wife, Pam, enjoy traveling and spending time with their grandchildren.

He has been a loyal and effective credit union volunteer deserving of re-election.
